Amelia Boggs) Gazzette lived the last twenty years of her life in Paris. France.
was Pres. of the Women's Guild of the American Church in Paris for many years and with her daughter, Grace G. Gazzette a talented and successful portrait painter in Paris - was closely identified with the work in American Ambulance Hospi tal at Neuilly - during World's War.

In November 1917 Mrs Gazzette received the Medaille d' Honneur from France for two years continuous service in the American Ambulance Hospital at Neuilly
- In Nov 1917 Grace Gazzette became Directrice Technique of the Franco-American Corrective Surgical Appliance Committee, a position for which her wide experience during the War eminently fitted her. In June 1917 the highest honor France bestows for Military or Civil service - the Cross of the Legion of Honor, was given Miss Gazzetti in recognition of her heroic original work in aid of the wounded soldiers of France. In November 1917 Miss Gazzetti was made Honorary Member of the 109th Inf. Reg. with title of Corporal Bracandière and decorated with the fourragère of the Croix de Guerre, which the 109th had received for bravery in the Battle of the Aisne, (March 1934) Miss Gazzetti is living at near Paris. * Thomas Martin Mansfield lived for time aft. his marriage in Orange Co, but later moved to Franklin Co, where they reared a large family and spent much of their

their teaching in the schools and churches.
He was a member of the Methodist church and his wife a Presbyterian, and they attended together with their children Fairmont Church which was used jointly by Methodists and Presbyterians. It was here that they organized the first Sunday School in Franklin Co. By their sincere work and example they contribu ted largely to the education and religious life of those who lived in that section.
After the death of her husband Mrs Mansfield lived for a time at the home in Franklin Co, but later sold the place and divided her time between her two daughters, Mrs. John R. Gentry of Gordonsville
Va, and Mrs. Christian Borze of Buchanan

11 Seven of the children of Thomas Martin Mansfield died within a period of one year, 5 sons in the U.S.A. - four died in battle, one contracted diphtheria, ~~and~~ went home and died. Gave the disease to the two younger girls who also died.

The oldest son Charles Fenton Mercer Mansfield left home at an early age to seek his fortune in the gold fields of California. After many adventures he returned to Washington City and there joined the U.S Army, soon after which war was declared between the states and he was forced to serve in the Federal Army.

This so bore upon his mind, he resolved never to return to his boyhood home and for more than forty years he was lost to his family but was finally located by a friend of the family in the Soldiers Home in Washington D.C. His mother had died but his two sisters visited him and there was a touching reunion. He told the story of his checkered life, and said that he succeeded in obtaining an appointment in the Quartermasters Dept. and had never fired a gun against the South. He died in the Soldiers' Home in Washington. Feb 18-1913.

Baptist Church for 6 years and of Antioch Church 30 years. He began his religious work before he was 21, preaching his first sermon on the edge of the stream where he was baptized and continued in the service until his death Aug 4-1899.
His last sermon was at Dundee church in Green Co (formerly Orange) when he had reached his four score years and ten."
"In addition to his work as a faithful and regular minister of the Gospel, he was a successful farmer, attending to the work of his plantation, providing handsomely

This ends the line of Joseph Allen Mansfield.

"After the marriages of his two surviving daughters and their departure for homes of their own, Rev: Joseph Allen Mansfield lived in his home alone, cared for by his servants of ante bellum days; many of whom never left him but continued to take a lively interest in his welfare, an indissoluble bond of affection and confidence existing between them. His mental faculties were never impaired and it was a treat to meet him, — to rest in the light of his kindly eyes and enjoy the wealth of his conversation."

This closes the record of Robert Mansfield and his fourteen children.

WALDO

The name Waldo may be derived from the Saxon Chief, Wada, 794 A.D. residing at Mulgrave Castle, who slew King Ethelred.

Thomas Waldo (perhaps a brother to Peter Waldo died 1179) came from Lyons in France and his descendants in the reign of Queen Elizabeth came to England.

In a house in Mitcham Surrey is a curious oak chimmey piece with the name "Peter Waldo 1673" cut with carvings.

Thomas Waldo, descendant of the above family, married and had issue:

1. Lawrence, b. 1560.
2. Robert
3. Capt. Richard, b. 1575.
4. Thomas
5. William
6. Brian
7. Jane married-----Prysell

Lawrence Waldo born 1560 was the ancestor of Sir Edward Waldo, knighted 1677 and died 1707. This Lawrence Waldo was a grocer of Broad Street, Allhallows, London, died 1602. His wife was Elizabeth. Sir Edward Waldo born 1632 was Sheriff of London, Alderman and Mercer, also of Cummings Co. and Middlesex. He lived at "Black Bull", Cheapside, and had a "Great Messuage," was knighted 1677 (Seal in possession of Morris). He married Elizabeth Thorpe first and second Elizabeth Shuckburgh. Issue:

Grace Waldo married first Sir Michael Holstenholme, Bart. died s.p. 1716 and she married second William Ferdinand Carey 8th Lord of Hunston. He was first cousin to Queen Elizabeth, William Carey having married Ann Boleyn's sister Mary. (See Waldo Gen. by Lincoln, Vol. 1 C.S. 71, W. 165 - 1902. Waldo Family C.S. 439, Y.W. 25-163).

Capt. Richard Waldo (son of Thomas Waldo) born 1575 came to Va. with Capt. Newport in the "Mary and Margaret" 1608. "Most trustworthy companion of John Smith and member of the Va. Council." (See Hennings Statutes of Va. Vol. 6, p. 83). (1609 2nd. Charter to Treasurer and Co. of Va.)

From him was descended Edward Waldo born 1670 of Lancaster Co. Va.

The Waldo Arms taken from a was seal on the Will of Edward Waldo dated 1693 recorded at Lancaster C.H. Va.

Arms: Argent a chevron between three birds sable beaked and Legged or.

Crest: A wolf's head erased or. (Va. Heraldica, p. 112)

The descent from Thomas Waldo is as follows:

I. Thomas Waldo 1550
II. Capt. Richard Waldo 1575
III. Richard Waldo 1600
IV. Richard Waldo 1640
V. Edward Waldo 1670 of Lancaster Co. Va.
VI. Ann Waldo born 1700 married Sharshall Grasty of Spottsylvania Co. Va. and their daughter VII. Ann Waldo Grasty (born 1720) married Oct. 21-1737 John Mansfield of Caroline and Orange Counties, Va. Their son Joseph G. (Grasty ?) Mansfield md.---- Herndon and they were the parents of Robert Mansfield. (See Mansfield Family Record).

GRASTY

Va. Records Vol. I. p. 420 Spottsylvania Co. 1721-1800 gives: Sharshall Grasty d. May 27-1745. Will probated Oct. 1-1745. Wife Sarah extrix. Names wife Sarah, sons: John, Butterworth, Sharshall and George; daughters: Ann Waldo Mansfield and Mary Grasty. Will names son-in-law John Mansfield guardian of minor Grasty children.

Mrs. Mary L. Thornton (living in 1931 Atlanta Ga.) daughter of Joseph Allen Mansfield says she "remembers very well how the Grasty's of Orange Co. used to come in their carriage to visit her father when she was a small child and called him "Cousin Allen".

It seems that two of the Grasty family married into the Dickey family of Nelson Co. Va., and Mrs. Thornton's "father's house was the half-way stop when they visited each other."

(This from Mrs. J. C. Gentry daughter of Mrs. Mary L. Thornton.)
